BARNEY BOLD.—A well-known government official connected with the Treasury Department of this city, was badly sold a few days since. In "smelling" about the St. Louis depot, he espied thirty barrels of whiskey, which were being resisted by the owner consigned to Jeff. Davis, a rich planter in Kentucky. Barney, with a rush of great fearful to contemplate to the disturbed himself with full authority, and then returned to the depot and took possession of the whiskey. Upon examination he found it to be a mixture of chicory and water, but in this case he had not left a New Brunswick precipitate for spirits.

FINE ARTS.—Among the great attractions of the day may be placed the superb collection of paintings, by the celebrated artist, Mr. Henry F. Darby, at Bryan & Lindel, No. 132 South Clark street. This collection of valuable pictures is the largest ever offered in this country, and will be sold positively to the highest bidder. Mr. Darby has made the selection of these paintings in Europe and America. It has been acknowledged by all who have seen this collection to be the finest ever offered to the public. Mr. Darby has returned to his native country for the purpose of selling this collection, and has instructed Messrs. Bryan & Lindel to sell the paintings at auction. Those desiring to purchase will find it to their advantage to call and examine the paintings before the day of sale.

GRAND PACIFIC.—We call the attention of our readers to the fact that a grand fair and festival, for the benefit of the poor, will be held in Burlington Hall, corner Halsted and Nineteenth streets, commencing on Monday evening, the 11th inst., and continuing for one week. The fair will be held under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Paul's Church, and from the well-known character of the ladies who have charge of the arrangements, we feel confident that the assembled in will prove a success. The object in view is laudable, and should be in hand. The society has incurred a debt of $400 during the past winter in their efforts to compel the poor to attend divine service, and they now ask the aid of their charitably disposed. An excellent supper will be served each night and will be in attendance each evening.

RESCUED FROM DROWNING.—Shortly after two o'clock, on Saturday afternoon, as the tug United States, was passing down the river, near the foot of Clark street, her crew, on hearing a cry for help, noticed, Mr. Charles Heath, deceased a man at some distance off, drifting towards them. Mr. Heath was seen to be in the water, and to be struggling with the waves. The tug was headed for the drowning man, and in a few moments he was on board. Meanwhile, a skiff had been lowered from the tug, and Mr. Heath was safely landed in the boat. Mr. Heath is employed in the Custom House, and resides at No. 1,000 Wabash avenue. He was in the water about ten minutes, and was considerably exhausted when rescued.

THE WIFE BEATER.—A CHEAP LUXURY.—The presiding genius of the Police Court on Saturday morning must have been in an extraordinary surprising mood, or there was something in the matter of the wife beaters that was to him quite new. Be this as it may, he was pleased to give the public a few words of his mind on the subject, and the substance of his remarks was that wife beating was an unenviable luxury in which only the lowest class of brutes indulged. He was pleased to say that he was not a believer in the doctrine of transmigration of souls, but he was inclined to think that those who indulged in the luxury of wife beating would have given him the days in the Bridewell, with a general description of the inmates.
